Program Description:

Big Brothers Big Sisters Northwestern Michigan works with caring individuals, service groups, businesses, and faith-based organizations to provide volunteer mentors to at-risk children. The youth come from predominantly single parent, low income households and are elementary, middle, and high school students. The programs include one-on-one and peer mentoring. All parties are carefully screened, trained, and monitored by professional case managers to ensure the best match and outcome possible. The community-based program operates in ten counties and the school-based program in 17 schools. Outcomes are regularly measured and the vast majority of children improve in academics, self confidence, behavior, and peer and adult relationships. The average length of a match is over two years. Volunteer mentors are expected to make a six month commitment, which involves four to six hours per month during day, evening, or weekend hours.
